-------------------	-----------------------

1. Background. Naval Special Warfare Command (NAVSPECWARCOM) Tactical Information Operations (TIO) program billets require duty in arduous and combat environments. Duty is frequently isolated and independent, and involves deployment with NAVSPECWARCOM personnel engaged in the Global War on Terror.

a. Designation. NAVSPECWARCOM TIO personnel are designated either

- Tactical Electronic Warfare (TAC-EW)/Tactical Computer Network Operations (TAC-CNO) operators, or
- Tactical Information Operations analysts (TIOA).

They are trained and equipped to provide a wide variety of tactical information operations support including electronic warfare and select computer network operations.

b. Location. Billets are located within NAVSPECWARCOM commands.

c. Authorization to Apply. Due to the nature of work and requirement to operate independently, first tour Sailors are not authorized to apply.

d. Tour Lengths. Duty with NAVSPECWARCOM TIO is classified as Type 2 sea duty and due to the extensive amount of training, the tour lengths are 60 months for TAC-EW/TAC-CNO and 36 months for TIOA.

e. Weapons. Members must maintain qualifications in various tactical and crew served weapons.

2. Requirements/Qualifications

a. Eligible Ratings. The following ratings are currently eligible for assignment.
