

“Johnny Got Busted” – COUNTRY Lyrics

Well this here’s the story of Johnny come lately, who wanted to serve so he joined the Navy.
He did a few tours and he saw the whole world,
and he got a promotion and he met a nice girl.

But then one day Johnny, he changed his whole life,
when he made the choice to smoke something called Spice.
And he got in real deep with some folks he called friends, who got busted themselves and they turned Johnny in.

Designer Drugs are designed to defeat you.
Spice is for seasoning and not for the pipe.
Designer Drugs are designed to beat you,
The Navy will bust you and ban you for life. (x2)

“Designed to Defeat You” – REGGAE Lyrics

They’re designed to defeat you...

I got designer drugs, designed to wreck your name.
One-way tickets to the hall of shame.
Forty five ways to make a mess of your mission.
Threats to your readiness and mental condition.

Designer drugs, they’re designed to defeat you.
And not just yourself but your crew, TRUE!
So do ‘em and you’re out. It can’t get more clear,
but let me say it again while you’re here.

Designer Drugs - a threat to readiness.
Designer drugs – they’re designed to defeat you.

Designer Drugs - a threat to readiness.
Designer drugs – they’re designed to defeat you.

I got this, and that, and stuff I’m not even sure of,
ways to get wasted that you ain’t even heard of,
all the right things for the wrong things to do.
And now, all I need is you.
